2. The Court has determined, based on the guilty pleas entered by defendants on June 5, 2013 and June 6, 2013, that the following property is subject to forfeiture pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853:

$37,503.00 in United States currency seized from a residence in Robins, Iowa, on March 27, 2013, in which

3. Upon entry of this Order, the United States (or its designee) is authorized to seize the property identified in paragraph 2, whether held by the defendants or by a third party and to conduct any discovery proper in identifying, locating or disposing of the property subject to forfeiture, in accordance with Fed.R.Crim.P.32.2(b)(3).

4. Upon entry of this Order, the United States is authorized to commence any applicable proceeding to comply with statutes governing third party rights, including giving notice of this Order.

5. The United States shall publish notice of the order and of its intent to dispose of the property pursuant to Rule 32.2(b)(6)(C) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure in accordance with Supplemental Rule G(4)(a)(iii) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, send notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the subject property pursuant to Rule 32.2(b)(6) and in accordance with Supplemental Rule G(4)(b)(iii-iv) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

6. Any person, other than the defendants, asserting a legal interest in the subject property may, within sixty (60) days from the first date of internet publication on www.forfeiture.gov, petition the court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his alleged interest in the subject property, and for an amendment of the order of forfeiture pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n). The petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury, and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

7. After the disposition of any motion filed under Fed.R.Crim.P. 32.2(c)(1)(A), and before a hearing on the petition, discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure upon a showing that such discovery is necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues. When discovery ends, a party may move for summary judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56 pursuant to Fed.R.Crim.P. 32.2(c)(1)(B).
